JESUS THE NAME ABOVE EVERY NAME by Rev. Edward O. Eruteya

J

Jesus is the name above every name in the universe and there is no controversy about it. What's a name? Is it to identify a person or thing? It's more than that. In ancient times an individual's name summed up his whole person: from The NIV Study Bible, 10th anniversary edition, p.1594. A name tells the totality of whom a person is his or her worth, integrity and essence. It's common that people want to note persons that have a name in society. When some people's names are mentioned, people listening may say forget that person. He or she has no name, not even a name to protect.

Among those that have a name in the world to protect, Jesus' name is above such names. There's no where Jesus' name does not command honour and worship in the universe. It's a name which spells absolute authority, power and dignity. Satan and all evil spirits know this and they bow at the mention of Jesus' name. Why? It is because Jesus is the head of all principalities and power (Ephesians 1: 20; Colossians 2:10). He's the absolute sovereign being. All God's angels bow at his name. In fact, things in heaven, on earth and below the earth bow at Jesus' name (Philippians 2:9-11). He's the name that commands worship. People in the occult can't say that they don't know the name of Jesus; how wonderful Jesus' name is. The name Jesus is the greatest headache they have as it paralyzes their operations.

Jesus means the LORD saves. He's not only the LORD, but the LORD who saves. No-thing can contend with Jesus in saving whatever and whoever he desires to save or rescue. He is supreme such that anything that wishes to contend with him always meets with a brick wall. Paul had a life experience with Jesus on his way to Damascus; where he was told: It is hard to kick against the bricks (Acts 9:5). Indeed, Jesus is the name for salvation (Acts 4:12). There is no other name among human beings for salvation. If you like, call all the names of prophets you know, they can't save you from eternal destruction in hell fire. If you like, worship all idols in your neighbourhood or visit all shrines you know; they can't save from eternal destruction rather they would aid your destruction no escape. Friend, if you like still allow Satan to deceive you especially about your personal salvation. [Hear this: Satan the head of the kingdom of darkness, who deceives the nations, cannot withstand just one angel from heaven that will chain him and dump him into the bottomless pit Revelation 20.] You better make a U-turn now, to believe in Jesus for your personal salvation before it gets late. There is time for every purpose under the sun, even the time for you to get saved from sin and Satan's dominion. Now that you are reading this message is the right time for Jesus to save you. You can experience your personal salvation in a simple prayer of faith and the power Jesus will overwhelm you. Your life will become good, better and best. Without delay, pray in these words: O Lord God, creator of my life; I believe all that I have read in this tract. I believe that Jesus is the head of all principalities and power. Therefore, I receive Jesus into my life as Saviour, the Christ and Lord. Forgive me all my sins, wash me clean with your precious blood. In your name, Jesus, I (mention your name) renounce Satan and all his works in my life.
